SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: Fifteen (15) years

[Fifteen (15) years as to Count 1s; Fifteen years as to each of Counts 2s and 3s which shall to run concurrently]

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: ALEXANDER HILLEL TREISMAN
CASE NUMBER: 1:20-CR-00208-1

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

DEFENDANT: ALEXANDER HILLEL TREISMAN
CASE NUMBER: 1:20-CR-00208-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall abide by the mandatory and standard conditions of supervised release.

The defendant shall cooperatively participate in a mental health treatment program, which may include inpatient treatment, and pay for those treatment services, as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall participate in an evaluation and a mental health program with emphasis on sex offender treatment, and pay for those treatment services, as directed by the probation officer. The defendant must submit to any risk assessments, psychological and physiological testing, which may include, but is not limited to, a Visual Reaction Time (VRT) measurement of sexual interest, and/or the use of prescribed medications, or other specific tests to monitor the defendant's compliance, as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall provide any requested financial information to the probation officer.

The defendant shall notify the probation officer of any material change in his economic circumstances that may affect his ability to pay restitution, a fine, or the special assessment.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement officer or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release.

The defendant shall not have any contact, other than incidental contact in a public forum such as ordering in a restaurant, grocery shopping, etc., with any person under the age of 18, except his children, without prior permission of the probation officer. Any approved contact shall be supervised by an adult at all times. The contact addressed in this condition includes, but is not limited to, direct or indirect, personal, telephonic, written, or through a third party. If the defendant has any contact with any child, that is, a person under the age of 18, not otherwise addressed in this condition, the defendant is required to immediately remove himself/herself from the situation and notify the probation office within 24 hours.

The defendant shall not view, purchase, possess or control any sexual explicit materials, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256, including but not limited to pictures, magazines, video tapes, movies, or any material obtained through access to any computer or any material linked to computer access or use.

The defendant shall submit to polygraph testing, as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, or any other means to access any online computer service at any location, including employment, without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet Service Provider, peer-to-peer network or file sharing programs, or any other public or private computer network. If granted access to an online computer service, the defendant shall consent to the probation officer conducting periodic or unannounced examinations of any internet capable devices, similar electronic devices, or computer equipment, which may include hardware, software, and related computer peripherals. This may also include the removal of such equipment, when necessary, for the purpose of conducting a more thorough examination. The defendant shall not have any social networking accounts without the approval of the probation officer.
